Group profit of €1.1bn, again exceeds €1bn

Revenue share of digital activities increased to 49 percent

Further progress with strategic priorities improves business profile and growth characteristics

Strengthening the core:

Further development of core businesses, CRM activities combined into new company Majorel

Digital transformation:

Expansion of VoD-offerings, ebooks and audiobooks, services for digital businesses and customers

Growth platforms:

Relevant markets are sizeable with significant growth opportunities, and exhibit structural tailwind from digitization e.g. for VoD, drama production, music streaming, e-commerce, financial services, online learning

Growth regions:

Bertelsmann Investments made 61 new and follow-on investments, funds hold shares in 189 companies end of 2018; proven track record with successful exits

Sound financial position

Leverage factor at 2.7x due to acquisition of OnCourse Learning in Q4; actual LF stands at 2.5x in line with target, considering already signed divestments

Solid equity ratio of 39 percent, High cash conversion rate of 91 percent, close to previous year's level

Strong liquidity and substantial reserves, extension of debt maturities in 2018, no material financing needs until 2020

Commitment to prudent financial policy

Further strategic progress into a faster-growing, more digital, more international and diversified group
